

Leechon Inc.
271 Idaho St. Paramus, NJ 07652
TEL: 1-201-956-5435
FAX: 1-201-621-4326
contactus@leechon.com

FACT SHEET:

DOCUMENTARY "TUFAAN"- DISASTER KNOWS NO PREJUDICE

FILM

- ✦ "Tufaan" is Arabic for "Great Storm" is a production of Belal Khan and Leechon Films
- ✦ Tells the stories of the Muslim victims of Hurricane Katrina as well as the relief effort given to both Muslims and Non-Muslims
- ✦ Takes a person back in time to August 2005 and explains what happened from beginning of the disaster to current time
- ✦ Non-profit; all money received by selling Tufaan DVDs will go toward the Hurricane Katrina recovery effort

MISSION

- ✦ Seeks to show the world that Islam is a religion that helps in the wake of disaster and not a religion that seeks to create disasters
- ✦ To raise $250,000 in aid for victims of Hurricane Katrina, both Muslim and Non-Muslim
- ✦ Utilize stories of the victims and relief workers to inspire people to donate

DEBUT DATE & LOCATION:

- ✦ August 2008 at Louisiana State University's Student Union
- ✦ Trailer can be seen at: <http://www.tufaanmovie.com>

SPONSOR:

- ✦ Leechon Films a company started by Belal Khan, an ambitious student at Montclair State University.
- ✦ Leechon Films one of the largest entertainment media for Muslims in North America. Produce films, commercials, public service announcements and trailers for the company as well as for other clients.